

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Lamoille Family Center, located in Morrisville, Vermont, is seeking a new executive director to lead this well-known and highly respected non-profit. Founded in 1976, the Family Center's 32 dedicated staff and volunteers touch the lives of more than 4,000 Lamoille Valley children, youth, and adults each year.

To assure its continued success and growth, the Family Center's new leader will possess an entrepreneurial spirit, strong communication skills, and the ability to lead the organization in team oriented and inclusive decision-making processes. The successful candidate will also demonstrate a solid grasp of best practices in the fields of early childhood, positive youth development, and family support, and a keen understanding of Vermont's education and human service systems. Preference will be given to candidates with a graduate degree in human services, education, administration, or a related field.

If you are an experienced professional with proven leadership abilities, this might be the next step in your career pathway. For more information, including a full job description, please visit: www.lamoillefamilycenter.org/edsearch/
